

The state of Indiana has a workable law in place concerning Telephone privacy and We in Indiana do not need the unasked for interference of the Federal Government.